

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2080

January 15, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Specifies that an attorney-at-law who wishes to be exempt from licensure as a private investigator must be an attorney-at-law in good standing and licensed to practice law in the State of Tennessee.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant
Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

To the extent that persons who are exempt from licensure under current law will have to pay fees and be licensed under the provisions of this bill, it is assumed:

- any increase in state revenues from the collection of licensing fees will be not significant.
- any increase in state expenditures to implement and monitor the provisions of this bill will not be significant.
